Changes to the travel program are reserved

Please note that changes to the travel program are reserved. The times indicated are approximate and may shift due to traffic or other unforeseen circumstances. However, we will do our best to adhere to the planned times. The general terms and conditions of "Auswandern Kolumbien SAS" apply. During the entire week, there is, of course, the possibility to arrange additional appointments for individual conversations with the organizers. It is our primary concern to provide you with a realistic impression of Colombia and the Medellin region to support you in your decision-making process for or against emigration. We want to offer you the best possible opportunity to get a personal impression on site.

Extension Trips

For those who wish to travel further after the relocation week, we have put together two extension trips, which can be booked either individually or in combination. One of the extension trips leads to the Coffee Zone and the other to the Caribbean coast. Please read the programs of these extension weeks. If you plan a very individual extension trip, Alexander Roll of Travelombia, an experienced German tour organizer, will be happy to assist you.
